MARCH 21ST VIRTUAL PROTEST

WHAT IS IT?

- The first online event of its kind to stand together with women in Turkey and in the World against violence, oppression and femicide.
- Accompanied by 30+ activists, community leaders, human rights defenders, journalists and lawyers.
- With more than 50,000+ attendees worldwide.

WHEN AND WHERE?

March 21st 2021 2:00 PM EST (New York)

Live at: www.youtube.com/AdvocatesofSilencedTurkey

HOW?

Several activists are going to join the protest with their 1 minute remarks on the violence, femicide, discrimination and political oppression targeting women and children in Turkey and around the World.

An attendance of 50,000+ is anticipated.

WHY?

- These protests are aimed towards raising awareness about the horrifying conditions of women and children suffering the injustice and devastating witch hunt in Turkey and around the World.
- Greater participation leads to pressure towards the betterment of conditions for all women, especially those inhumanely imprisoned as political captives.
- It is often the trust that they are not forgotten that keeps people content rather than their optimism.

WHAT CAN WE DO?

- The more the number of viewers, the higher the impact. So you can help first by joining the event and invite others to be a part of this worthwhile event.
- The size of the impact is measured by the number of viewers during online events, and that is simply number of viewers from different devices, i.e phones, computers or tablets.
- On 21st of March 2021, please devote your time between 2:00-3:00 PM EST to the victims and be a part of this meaningful event. It starts at 6 PM in London, 9 PM in Athens, 7 PM in Berlin 3 PM in Brasil, and 7 PM in Kenya.
- You can share this information with your friends and social circles and encourage them to be on the channel at their respective time. Even though they may be busy at the time, you will contribute by sharing the atrocities committed and help raise awareness on the issue.
- You can organize zoom meetings or Social Media events to create synergy and motivation. You can also share your enthusiasm with us so that we can get fired up as well!
- You can ask human rights activists, community leaders, journalists and lawmakers to join this online event with a 1-minute video recording to be broadcast during the protest. Send us an e-mail to help@silencedturkey.org about the details.

We hope you become a part of this event even with a nod or a tiny effort and help thousands of women and children get out of their misery.
